

I would hope the FCC would resist the current effort to restrict the offerings of satellite radio. Those opposing the offering of this service do not seem to make an adequate point to me for their opposition to weather and news broadcasts. Thanks for your ear.Charles